

safeguarding of information that is owned by, produced for or by, or under the control of the Department of Defense or its Components.

§ 159a.3 Nongovernment operations.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of this part that are relevant to operations of nongovernment personnel entrusted with classified information shall be made applicable thereto by contracts or other legally binding instruments. (See DOD Directive 5220.22¹, DoD 5220.22-R², and DoD 5220.22-M³.)

§ 159a.4 Combat operations.

The provisions of this part relating to accountability, dissemination, transmission, or safeguarding of classified information may be modified by military commanders but only to the extent necessary to meet local conditions in connection with combat or combat-related operations. Classified information should be introduced into forward combat areas or zones or areas of potential hostile activity only when essential to accomplish the military mission.

§ 159a.5 Atomic energy material.

Nothing in this part supersedes any requirement related to "Restricted Data" in the Atomic Energy Act of August 30, 1954, as amended, or the regulations of the Department of Energy under that Act. "Restricted Data" and material designated as "Formerly Restricted Data," shall be handled, protected, classified, downgraded, and declassified to conform with Pub. L. 83-703 and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

§ 159a.6 Sensitive compartmented and communications security information.

(a) Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI) and Communications Security (COMSEC) Information shall be handled and controlled in accordance with applicable national directives and DOD Directives and Instructions. Other classified information, while in established SCI or COMSEC areas, may be handled in the same manner as SCI or COMSEC information. Classification principles and procedures, markings, downgrading, and declassification actions prescribed in this part apply to SCI and COMSEC information.

(b) Pursuant to 32 CFR part 159, the Director, National Security Agency/Chief, Central Security Service may prescribe special rules and procedures for the handling, reporting of loss, storage, and access to classified communications security devices, equipments, and materials in mobile, handheld or transportable systems, or that are used in conjunction with commercial telephone systems, or in similar circumstances where operational demands preclude the application of standard safeguards. These special rules may include procedures for safeguarding such devices and materials, and penalties for the negligent loss of government property.

§ 159a.7 Automatic Data Processing systems.

This part applies to protection of classified information processed, stored or used in, or communicated, displayed or disseminated by an automatic data processing (ADP) system. Additional security policy, responsibilities, and requirements applicable specifically to ADP systems are contained in DoD Directive 5200.28⁴ and DoD 5200.28-M.
